Assessment Methods

All units of competence may be assessed using a selection of tools, as mentioned below:

- Written Questions
- Theory Assessments
- Case Study/Project Work Practical Assessment (Simulated Environment)

Students will require a laptop to study, basic stationery, and a notebook according to their own study preferences.

Credit Transfer/Recognition of Prior Learning

Students can apply for recognition of their existing skills and knowledge that are relevant to the units of competency within the course. These skills and knowledge may have been obtained through workplace training or experience and may reduce the number of units required to be completed during the course.

Students who have successfully completed whole units of competency included in this course can apply for Credit. Students who are granted RPL and/or Credit will have their course delivery and assessment schedule altered and may also be eligible for reduced fees.

For International Students:

If RPL/credit transfer is approved, the student's Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) will be adjusted to reflect any reduction in the period of study the student is enrolled in. The study load will remain the scheduled 20 hours per week as per the student visa requirements.

Please refer to the International Student Handbook for more information on Recognition of Prior Learning. You may contact the admission department to find out how to apply via the contact us page.

Exit Point and Pathways

Students must complete all assessments for each unit of competency to be deemed competent in a unit. All 8 units must be completed to gain the full qualification.

Students who do not complete the full qualification may receive a Statement of Attainment for all units successfully completed.
